These products are being recalled out of an abundance of caution because of a potential for milk protein cross-contamination on the equipment of a chocolate supplier we used for a brief period of time. We are initiating this voluntary recall as a precautionary measure to ensure the utmost safety of Dream Pops' products.

Dream Pops requests that all distributors and retailers check the lot numbers of any Dream Pops Bites products in their possession. Other lot numbers of Dream Pops Bites products are not affected.

Distributors: Please immediately discontinue supplying these lot numbers to retailers, and discard or destroy all affected inventory in your possession. Please use the enclosed Distributor Product Destruction Log to report the amount of the inventory on hand and confirm that it has been discarded or otherwise destroyed. Please also alert your retail customers to this recall and instruct them to destroy all affected lot numbers in their inventory. Please ask them to complete the enclosed Retailer Product Destruction Log and return it to you. Please forward all completed Product Destruction Logs to your Dream Pops sales representative.

Retailers: Please immediately remove products from retail shelves and storage, and discard or destroy all affected inventory in your possession. Please use the enclosed Retailer Product Destruction Log to report the amount of the inventory on hand and confirm that it has been discarded or otherwise destroyed. Please return the completed Product Destruction Log to your Dream Pops sales representative.

Once Dream Pops has received certification that your inventory has been discarded or destroyed, it will provide information regarding the crediting or replacement of these products as soon as possible.

If you have questions or need further information, please contact your Dream Pops representative at support@dream-pops.com. Dream Pops appreciates your assistance with its voluntary recall and regrets any inconvenience this recall may cause. We will take whatever steps we can to facilitate replacement of the products.
